The Evening at a Glance

AVIDLIFESTYLE AND COLORADO AVIDGOLFER

magazines came together for an unforgettable evening benefiting Bags of Fun with a percentage to National Jewish Health.

Vehicle Vault, one of the most distinctive event venues in Colorado, welcomed guests to explore and enjoy a highly curated private collection of vintage and exotic automobiles, while experiencing exquisitely decorated lounges from top interior designers.

On a gorgeous Colorado evening, guests toasted the night with bespoke cocktails and culinary creations from Bonanno Concepts, savored grilled goodness from Chef Andrew of Mountain High Appliance, were treated to a live performance from country singer Teddy Robb, partook in interactive golf experiences and live artist presentations and so much more!

An Evening to Help

OUR GOAL WAS TO raise awareness and money to benefit two worthy organizations. Proceeds from this event benefitted Bags of Fun with a percentage to National Jewish Health.

For more than 17 years, this local charity has brought joy, laughter and relief to children in the fight of their lives. Their mission is to deliver a Bag of Fun to every sick child whose health and happiness is both compromised and threatened.

NATIONAL JEWISH HEALTH

National Jewish Health develops and provides innovative clinical programs for treating and rehabilitating patients of all ages and for preventing respiratory, cardiac and immune diseases. Their goal is to discover knowledge to enhance prevention, treatment and cures, through an integrated program of basic and clinical research, and to educate scientists, physicians, health care professionals and the public.

RESULT: We raised over $75,000 in our inaugural year and are eager to surpass that in 2022.

A Drive Through Time

GUESTS TOOK A TRIP through time and experienced one of the most impressive auto collections in the country, from iconic car makers like Ferrari, Shelby, Rolls Royce, DeLorean and more to today's hottest models from McLaren, Lamborghini, Aston Martin, Audi, BMW and Alfa Romeo.

LOUNGING THE NIGHT AWAY
GUESTS RELAXED and mingled throughout the evening in custom-designed lounges offered different themes, signature cocktails, entertainment such as live cooking demonstrations and luxury interior designs. They were meticulously decorated by Howard Lorton Furniture & Design, Carla's A Classic Design, Six Walls Interior Design and Beautiful Habitat.

A LIL' COUNTRY AROUND THE GREEN

Guests were treated to a golf experience under the stars with the latest golf fashions and gear from TravisMathew, PGA Tour Superstore, Moonshine Golf, Lilly Pulitzer, Pyramid Putters and more. As the sun set over the Rockies, country singer Teddy Robb serenaded guests with his country western music that set the stage for a little friendly "longest putt competition" for a chance to win bets with PointsBet.

COCKTAILS & COOKING WITH FRANK BONANNO

Award-winning chef and restaurateur Frank Bonanno of Bonanno Concepts delighted our taste buds with culinary creations from some of his most popular restaurants such as Mizuna, Vespers and Osterio Marco. For the Bonanno Concepts experience, he also created savory specialty cocktails that paired perfectly with his dishes. Chef Andrew of Mountain High Appliance proved he's a grilling guru with his Alfresco Grill and a perfect cocktail to compliment his talents.

ATTENDEES

Our guests were an affluent high-profile demographic that matched the audience profile of Colorado AvidGolfer and AvidLifestyle. These active community members spend their time and money on luxury experiences, charitable events, travel, dining, art and entertainment, real estate and design.

Brands Building Brands

THE DESIRABLE DEMOGRAPHIC of the Wheels of Dreams event creates an exclusive environment in which elite brands thrive. The rising tide does indeed raise all boats. One of the highlights of this event is bringing together these trusted brands and continue cultivating relationships and developing partnerships.
