HOW HIGH IS THE CEILING for Indoor Golf?

Dozens of offerings are out there — from one-bay sports bars to spacious clubs

By Jim Albright

Indoor golf bars, clubs, and lounges have been popping up throughout Colorado for the past several years and entrepreneurs are still trying to find out how large the market for indoor golf can get.

There are more than 20 locations across the state that offer indoor golf, but each has a different feel and atmosphere. Some are more upscale and some are more casual. The market is still growing, but it's clear that indoor golf is here to stay.

One of the most popular indoor golf locations in the state is the Denver Golf Club. The club has a large indoor golf facility with a variety of different courses and a full-service bar and lounge. The club is a great place to go for a round of golf and a drink.

Another popular indoor golf location is the Colorado Golf Club. The club has a large indoor golf facility with a variety of different courses and a full-service bar and lounge. The club is a great place to go for a round of golf and a drink.

Indoor golf is a great way to enjoy the game of golf year-round. It's a great way to stay in shape and enjoy the outdoors without the weather. Indoor golf is a great way to spend time with friends and family.

As the market for indoor golf continues to grow, it's clear that there is a lot of potential for this industry. Entrepreneurs who are looking for a new way to make money should consider indoor golf as a viable option.
